THE EVENING CRITIC.

AMUSEMENTS.

National Theatre. Miss Jennie Lee, as "Jo," continues throughout the week at the National. We were pleased to note that the house last night was better than on Monday and Tuesday. As an artist of standing, and sup-ported by a quite clever company, Miss Lee merits a much more liberal patronage. Ford's Opera-IKouse.

The marked increase in the size of the audience at the Opera-house is an evidence that "Rooms For Rent" is being appreciated. This most excellent comedy is presented in handsome style, and by most finished artists. It merits the success which it is attaining.

Theatre Comique.

The Theatre Comique is crowded nightly, as usual, by audiences enthusiastic over the exceedingly fine variety bill, and the first-class drama, "Dead to the World." Matine to-morrow at 2:30.

"Photos, a musical improbability," will hold the boards at the National next week. It is said to be one of the eleverest hits of the season.

Haverly's Mastodon Minstrels will open at Ford's Opera-house on Monday and con-tinue during the week. Abner's Garden. The Vienna Ladies' Orchestra continues to attract large audiences at Abner's sum-mer garden. The attraction is very fine, and the music, without exception, as de-lightful as we have had in Washington for accepted. His honor held that the personal representative of a decedent could not, under the circumstances, cure his previous default by tender after his decease, intimany of the principal cities, and measures mating also that a mandamus was the proper remedy, even if the case had any merits. The bill was accordingly dismissed with costs.

Under the new schedule the mail wagons will begin to make six trips per week between the contral office on Louisians avenue and the Capitol Hill station. Twenty minutes will be allowed the wagons for each trip, so that half an hour after the mail is open at the central office it will be ready for the carriers and general delivery on Capitol Hill. After the 15th proximo the mails will be sent to and received from Georgetown five times a day, and the mail each trip, so that half an hour after the mail is open at the central office it will be ready for the carriers and general delivery on Capitol Hill. After the 15th proximo the mails will be sent to and received from Georgetown five times a day, and the mail will be ready for delivery in Georgetown in less than an hour after it is received at the Washington office. The Post-office Department has invited proposals for this service.

APPEALS FOR HELP

WHICH THE PEOPLE OF WASHING-TON WILL NOT DISREGARD.

The Terrible Sufferings in Michigan -Their Brethren Here Appeal for Aid-Everybody Asked to Contrib-

Aid-Everybody Asked to Contribnte.

The amount of suffering occasioned by the extensive fires in Michigan can hardly be estimated. Whole districts have been laid waste, and thousands of families are not only homeless, but are in imminent danger of starvation. The citizens of that State have generously responded to assist the destitute, but more is needed than they can possibly give. Committees have been appointed to appeal to other States and cities, and, in fact, two addresses have been issued to the people of the United States, setting forth the great distress brought about by these fires, and the urgent necessity for assistance. The last address issued by the State Relief Committee is as follows:
Porr Huron, Mich., Sept. 11, 1881.

PORT HURON, MICH., Sept. 11, 1881. PORT HURON, MICH., Sept. 11, 1881.

To the American people:

We have to-night returned from the burnt district of Huron and Samilac Counties. We have seen the burned, disfigured and writhing bodies of men, women and children rough board coffins containing the dead followed to the grave by a few blinded, despairing relatives; crowds of half-starved people at some of the stations asking bread for their family and neighbors. We heard of more than 200 victims already buried, and more charred and bloated bodies daily discovered. Already more than 1,500 famof more than 200 victims already buried, and more charred and bloated bodies daily discovered. Already more than 1,500 families are found to be utterly destitute and homeless. They huddle in barns, in school-houses, in their neighbors' houses, scorched, blinded, hopeless. Some still wander half-crazed around the ruins of their habitations, vainly seeking their dead. Some in speech-less agony are wringing their hands and refuse to be comforted. More than 1,500 families are found to be utterly destitute and homeless. They huddle in barns, in school-houses, in their neighbors' houses, scorched, blinded, hopeless. Some still wander half-crazed around the ruins of their habitations, vainly seeking their dead. Some in speech-less agony are wringing their hands and refuse to be comforted. More than 10,000 people who only one week ago occupied happy, comfortable homes are to-day house-less, homeless ufferers. They are hungry and almost naked when found, and in such great numbers and so widely scattered that our best efforts and greatest resources fail to supply their immediate wants. Without speedy aid many will perish, and many more will membership. The late husband of the complainant, after being duly notified, died on the twenty-seventh day after date, without having liquidated his indebtendess. On the day of his funeral his widow tendered the dues in arrear, which were not accepted. His honor held that the personal representative of a decedent could not, under the circumstances, cure his previous default by tender after his decease, inti-

He thought that they should make their appeal, not as citizens of Michigan, but as the friends of humanity, believing that they would accomplish more. Some discussion was participated in by Captain Tyler, Mossrs. Barnard, Baxter and Rev. Jabex Fox as to the proper steps to be taken in the matter of subscriptions, and also as to the calling of the Michigan Club, at the conclusion of which Mr. Howell's motion was adopted. Mr. F. B. Ow-Weighted.

The letter-carriers of this city are overweighted by having to collect the mail matter in addition to the large amount of matter they are called upon to deliver.

In other cities there are regularly constituted letter-collectors, whose sole duty is the collection of matter from the boxes, and they are enabled thereby to collect at closer hours to the outgoing mail than the carriers possibly can do. If for no other reason than relieving the carriers of the enormous land; Agricultural Bureau, Col. Marphy: Department of Justice, U. J. A Suit for Damages.
Charles Heinline, by his next friend, S. T. Heinline, to-day brought suit against the Washington & Georgetown Rallroad Company, claiming $5,000 damages. It appears that the boy on the 6th of August last, while riding on car 68, at the corner of Soventh and R streets northwest, was thrown to the ground in the attempt to loap from the ear when leaded gainst the filled was the cause of the injury.

Suit Against a Steamboat Company.
Yesterday F. W. Fagunhoft brought suit before a certain justice against the finland and Scaboard Company, claiming $700 damages. The suit was brought on account of the demand for moncy in excess of the amount paid for tickets to Norfolk and Fortress Monroe, and a violation of the context upon which the tickets were issued. The judgment rendered was for $500 and costs.

to do this. We feel justified in appealing to the prosperous citizens of Washington for aid in this great calamity. We hope that the Commissioners of the District will call a public meeting of citizens to devise means of relief. Cash contributions may be handed to Capt. R. W. Subscriptions will be received at the Critic office, and we will take pleasure in publishing the names of all contributors.

Guiteau in a New Cell.

Guiteau in a New Cell.

Guiteau is now in a cell in another wing of the jail from where he was when Sorgt. Mason tried to shoot him on Sunday night last. Notwithstanding his narrow escape from Mason's bullet, he stoutly objected to being moved. On looking in his new quarters, and noticing that a new wall had been run up, so that the soldiers on duty on the outside of the jail could not practice any more on him, he stoutly objected to occupying the cell, saying: "It is not a fit place for a gentleman to be put in." His objections, however, were not considered, and soon the key was turned on him. To the deputy warden he said: "What famous or infamous man has been a prisoner in this cell?" "Stone, the colored wife-murderer," was the answer. "What became of him?" Guiteau asked. "He was hung," the deputy warden replied, "right out in that yard. His execution made a big sensation, his head having been pulled off his body by the rope." "I remember reading of it," Guiteau answered, "but I never supposed at the time that I would be the next man to occupy his cell. There seems to be an unpleasant history connected with all of the cells." "Yes," answered the deputy warden, "there is a strange history connected with the next cell to you." "Excuse me, please," said Guiteau, "but I would prefer not to hear it. I have heard enough already. It makes me sick." In speaking to the jail guard on duty in his corridor, Guiteau said last night: "I don't fear these attacks that the people are providing for me. God will protect me and save me from injury from any of them." Then, getting in an inquisitive mood, he asked, "What do you think will be done with me?" The guard answered: "My own opinion is that you will be killed by some one, whether the President dies or not." Guiteau and with me?" The guard answered: "My own opinion is that you will be killed by some one, whether the President dies or not." Guiteau's only remark was, "I hope Florence O'Donohue, a stout Irish lad of twenty summers, was this morning arrested, charged with making an attack upon Patrick O'Connor, a fifty-year-old man. The two had a pretty hard struggle, but old age had to succumb to youth and muscle. There has been considerable trouble in the O'Connor and O'Donohue families of late, growing out of a fight at a wake more than a month ago, as published in The Critic at the time, and every little while a free fight is the result. Judge Snell will call the young man to account to-morrow.

A CARD

We desire, in few and plain-spoken words, to communicate the position of our already established house. We have for the past three years been doing business at the southeast corner of Seventh and D streets (Wash. B. Williams' Building). We particularly wish to impress our patrons and the public with the fact that the undersigned have, since the very opening of the above location, been sole owners and proprietors, but known and conducted under a different name. Now, what we wish to say is this: That every dollar's worth of clething sold during that time has been of our own manufacture, and we shall continue keeping the same class of goods in our new establishment. We do not say they are the best-made garments to be found anywhere, and that we sell cheaper than anyone else, but we do assert that there are none to excel in style and workmanship, and no one able to sell lower.

We never exaggerate, giving invariably to each customer the value of his purchase, and in every instance return money where goods are not satisfactory.

Our One-Price System, which we so strictly enforced, will be one of the principal features in conducting our business.

features in conducting our business.

We occupy the entire building. Every floor, fully one hundred feet deep, stocked with an attractive and varied line of good goods only, in order to maintain our excellent reputation as sole manufacturers of high grade Clothing for Men's, Youths', Boys' and Children's wear.

In our Tailoring Department we constantly keep foreign and domestic productions.

Thanking you most kindly for past patronage, and anticipating a share in the future, we are, very respectfully,
